Aim: How does imagery show us the tone in the poem “Annabel Lee”?

Do Now: Describe your favorite place on Earth. It can be someplace you went on vacation. Someplace you visit often, or someplace you have read about in a book. Be as descriptive as possible, but don't mention where you are talking about.

Imagery: Descriptive language that can enhance the reader's experience reading a story. It draws on the five senses to enhance a story.

Tone: The attitude or approach an author takes to a piece of work. What the AUTHOR brings to the table.

What is the tone of the poem?

Sadness

Loss

Tragedy.

Love

Underline examples of imagery:

"I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud" by William Wordsworth uses imagery throughout:

A host, of golden daffodils; Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line Along the margin of a bay: Ten thousand saw I at a glance, Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.
